

Contents

Features

- 10 Ocean changes
'The deep ocean current was discovered by Japanese and Australian scientists near the Kerguelen plateau...'
- 12 Macquarie Island: Part 2 - Occupation history, pests and eradication
'The first phase in the human history of Macquarie Island extends from the time of documented discovery until approximately 1835...'
- 15 Midwinter events
Antarctic Visions, Winter Lectures and TMAG Schools Programs.
- 16 In search of Roald Amundsen
'If it is possible to imagine a piece of beef, odiferous codfish and a canvas-backed duck roasted together in a pot with blood and cod liver oil for service...'
- 18 ANARE club tribute to Dr Phil Law
'At the first sight of the museum you could be forgiven for thinking that it is a temple to Amundsen...'

Regulars

- 06 David Bartlett
- 07 Matthew Groom
- 08 John Brennan
- 09 Lyn Maddock
- 21 Polar News
- 22 Publications
- 24 Polar Calendar
- 26 Shipping

Our cover picture

Courtesy Frederique Olivier